Summer-at-a-Glance: Building Workforce Opportunities for Youth During Challenging Times

Date: 03/23/2021

Moderator(s): Maisha Meminger

Speaker(s): Mariama Sesay, Sally Payne, Heather Pipkin, Blythe Brunner

This peer exchange webinar provides a platform for local youth service providers to share their experiences operating summer opportunities during 2020 in a challenging environment. Panelist share innovative practices to help local youth programs overcome service delivery barriers and provide meaningful work experiences for summer 2021 and beyond.

Panelist respond to the questions identified below:

- How did your program differ from previous years
- What type of innovative practices did your program implement?
- What are your plans for summer 2021?
- Are there any other achievements you want to share?
- Contacts, resources and closing

Participants learn about strengthening relationships with employers, developing virtual work experiences, designing support services to meet participants' unique needs along with the advantages of using technology to support participants to help youth attain successful outcomes.
